For a Sprained Ankle.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may be effected in many cases in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Co. and Richard Gibson.

Annual Meeting Grand Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, Dallas, Tex., July 12-18.

On account of the above the Southern Railway has arranged low round trip rates from all coupon points on its lines Dates of sale July 9, 10 and 11; return limit leaving Dallas not later than August 8 Stop-overs west of Mississippi river on going trip only. OFFICIAL.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 6, 1908.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3 or $5.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that other pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

☞In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

Attention is also called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the laws of the city whether a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the streets and alleys of the city, both day and night, for it is provided by law that "The Mayor in addition at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation shall declare that all such dogs as above licensed shall be securely muzzled, and if any such dogs be found running at large during the continuance of such proclamation without the required muzzle they shall be seized by the police force, or other persons designated by the Mayor for such purposes," and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed.

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

MURDERED BY ITALIANS.

Parke Clelland was murdered and Councilman William Vanderberg was fatally wounded by five Italian desperadoes on the streets of Pittston, Pa., Saturday night, and for the next five hours thousands of angry men and boys marched the street attracked the police when the latter captured suspects, made repeated efforts to lynch the prisoners, and, getting one of them, beat him into unconsciousness, and would have killed him had not Mayor Gillespie gone to his rescue.

Not until 6 o'clock yesterday morning was the mob finally dispersed. The streets yesterday were crowded, and hundreds followed the police to the station houses with every prisoner they captured, and there have been repeated demands for lynchings

The murder and assault were brutal and unprovoked, and occurred at a place in the Italian quarter where there had been two other murders in the past eighteen months.

Clelland, Vanderberg, and William Evans were going home when five Italian rowdies blocked the sidewalk and refused to let them pass. They pushed past them, however, and the next instant the Italians were upon them with revolvers and stilettoes.

A dozen or more shots were fired as fast as the Italians could pull the triggers. Clelland fell with two bullets through his body, and lived only a few minutes.

Evans escaped, but Vanderberg was pursued down the street and stabbed six times with stilettoes. One wound under the heart will probably prove fatal. One ear is cut off, and he has wounds in his arms, neck and back.

A TORNADO IN CAMP.

A tornado, born somewhere over the Canadian line, swept General Grant's big military camp at Carthage, N. Y., yesterday afternoon and mussed it viciously.

The wind, which leveled tents, scattered $10,000 worth of Paymaster Holloway's good new currency over several acres of ground, injured 15 or 20 troopers slightly, frightened the cavalry horses to wild stampedes, was followed by a downpour which left the ground soaked like a sponge.

The headquarters of the Twelfth Infantry from Governors Island, right in the center of the main camp, was smattered hard. Major George T. Holloway, of the pay department, with Adjutant Davis, of the Twelfth, was paying off the regulars. He brought $91,600 to camp with him Saturday, $36,000 of which he had handed over the table, when the wind struck him.

In an instant, the pay table knocked flat, the thousands of dollars in bills were whirling away through the air. Some of the money the officers saved by falling on it. They stopped the mad flight of a bucketful of $10 bills and of a dozen packages of $10 notes and smaller denominations, but at least $10,000, the major figured, got away They were picking up money all over the camp last night. Most of it will be recovered, no doubt, but not all. Since the major is responsible personally for the government's cash it will take a special act of Congress to square him for the rest.

$100,000 FOR ADVERTISING.

Friday's afternoon session of the mass convention of millers of the country, under the auspices of the Millers' National Federation, was devoted to a discussion of the "troubles of the milling industry and a remedy."

There were nine papers read on different phases of millers' troubles. That there is a large overproduction by the millers of the country and that this is responsible in a large measure for their difficulties seemed to be the consensus of opinion.

A paper prepared by Thomas Wilson, of Leith, Scotland, representing the National Association of Flour Importers in that city, was read by Secretary Goetzmann. Mr. Wilson warned the millers that if they do not pay more attention to securing quick dispatch of their shipments they will find their market seriously threatened by the British millers, who are in position to make quick deliveries.

Secretary Goetzmann discussed the advertising campaign which is carried on by the manufacturers of prepared breakfast foods, and said that their statements of the harmfulness of white flour and the superiority of their preparations should be counteracted by the millers. He recommended that the federation make an appropriation of $100,000 to begin such an advertising campaign.

"ELIJAH" PUT IN PRISON.

After being out three and a half hours the jury in the Elijah Skaggs case at Fort Smith, Ark., on Saturday returned a verdict of guilty of attempted criminal assault and fixed his punishment at 21 years' imprisonment.

The prophet who says he is the reincarnation of the original Elijah, flushed deeply and in a tremulous tone asked permission to make a statement, but was refused.

It has developed that Skaggs, since his incarceration, has been receiving heavy mail containing money orders from his followers in Texas and other places and that he has been well supplied with funds.

On the stand Mrs Taylor, his accuser, declared that the offense was spiritual, not physical, and that she had covenanted with him to cause him to be put to death, so that he might arise on the third day and prove his divine mission. She is held on a $500 cash bond for perjury.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

DECLARING that he is finally convinced that neither of the prisoners had anything to do with the murder of Governor William Goebel, Governor Willson the republican executive of Kentucky, on Saturday, as stated in the Gazette of that day, granted free pardon and restoration of all rights of citizenship to Caleb Powers and Jim Howard. These men were tried and retried by competent juries for the atrocious murder, were convicted each time, and Powers twice sentenced to death. So rank was their offense that the U. S. Courts refused to have anything to do with the case, yet the republican governor pardons these men and restores to them all rights of citizenship! Governor Taylor, it will be remembered soon after the murder of Governor Goebel, fled into Indiana and has never since set foot in Kentucky. He was indicted for complicity in the murder and only escaped trial by the refusal of the republican governor of Indiana refusing to sign the legal requisition papers sent him from Kentucky. Now Taylor, who is still in Indiana says: "The pardon of Powers and Howard is a most righteous act!"

GAINING seventy delegates last week, Mr. Bryan is now absolutely assured of a renomination at Denver. Instructions for him were given by state and territorial conventions in Oregon, New Mexico, Kentucky, Virginia and Utah. He has now the support of 668 delegates—two-thirds of the membership of the democratic national convention. One hundred and twenty-four delegates are still to be elected. Of these Mr. Bryan seems pretty certain to get 24 from Tennesee, 18 from Mississippi, 6 from Montana and 5 from Colorado—53 in all—bringing his total up to 721. He has a good chance also to win 26 in Georgia, 24 in North Carolina and six in Florda. Since his nomination is a foregone conclusion, the opposition to Bryan may, in fact, let all the remaining delegates go to him by default. The anti-Bryan forces will play an absolutely quiescent role at Denver.

THE president has taken Washington under his fostering care and is acting as the pooh bah of that city. His latest move is to call on the Department of Agriculture to advise him what precautionary measures have been and are being taken by the District authorities in regard to the number of supposed mad dogs in the city, and from a semi-official source it is learned that the president may issue an order to the commissioners to revive the old muzzling regulation, which was tried as an experiment nine years ago. Such matters at one time were looked after by the local authorities.

A DISPATCH sent out from Chicago says the "allies" have become desperate and that their last wild plan is to stampede the convention by putting Roosevelt in nomination against Taft. This is silly, as the "allies" themselves were some time since told by the managers that if they did not behave themselves and stop their opposition to Taft, Roosevelt would be rammed down their throats and this so alarmed them that they have grown small by degrees and beautifully less since the threat was made. With them Taft is bad enough; but Roosevelt again, oh, horrors!

MR. JAMES J. HILL, chairman of the board of the Great Northern Railroad, conferred with President Roosevelt Saturday. He said he did not care to discuss either politics or finance, but when the president's policy toward corporations was made a subject of inquiry as bearing on the future of railroads, he disavowed any special knowledge but vigorously insisted that any corporation found violating the laws should be prosecuted to the utmost. Great Scott! If this is not a case of crying "stop thief" then what is it?

A TELEGRAM comes all the way from Chicago stating the Roosevelt-Taft platform will be adopted by the republican national convention in the precise form in which it was approved in Wasnington before being brought to Chicago by Wade Ellis, who compiled the document under the instructions of a conference recently held at the White House. Why, everybody knew that some time ago.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, D. C., June 15.

It was learned upon good authority today that the White House prefers either Senator Dolliver or Governor Cummins of Iowa for second place on the ticket. Word to this effect, it is known, was sent to Chicago and Iowa today. The decision to place either Dolliver or Cummins on the ticket was reached at a conference with the President and Secretary Taft held before noon. They were in communication by long distance telephone with Frank H. Hitchcock, in Chicago, who had gotten reviews of Senators Long and Borah on the Iowa situation. Dolliver had been the first choice of the president and Taft from the very start. The refusal of Dolliver's friends to permit him to accept and thus leave the field open for the selection of Cummins for the Senate has forced the administration either to abandon Dolliver or resort to strategy to get him on the ticket. Cummins is regarded as the only other man west of the Mississippi that can hold a candle to Bryan on the stump, and really is as acceptable for this purpose as Dolliver. It is not believed that Cummins would estrange the business interest which objects to his radicalism. His selection for second place would also clear the Iowa situation and would prevent possible uproar in the Senate, which is sure to follow his election to that body. From Washington, it is believed, the Dolliver men would prefer to have Cummins elected vice president than senator. For these reasons Cummins is picked as the more likely of the two to be selected by the convention as Taft's running mate.

President Roosevelt delivered a sermon today to forty students of Holy Cross College in this city, who are about to enter the Catholic priesthood. All of the party are graduates of Notre Dame University, South Bend, Indiana. The president emphasized to them the advantages of good citizenship and the great work for men of their position to perform in the world. Thirty-five graduates of Holy Cross College at the Catholic University, Brookland, D. C, were presented to Secretary of War Taft this morning. The secretary besmed upon them with his characteristic smile and hearty laugh, when informed by Professor Zahm that the young men were anxious to meet the country's two greatest political leaders. "We have just seen one, over at the White House," said Professor Zahm, referring to their reception by the president, "and now we have come to see the other; my boys have seen the president and they hope the next president." The secretary said he hoped they would not be disappointed as to their hopes.

Changes in the diplomatic service were announced today as follows, to become effective at once: H. S. R. Hitt of Illinois, promoted from Secretary of the Embassy at Rome, to Secretary of Embassy at Berlin to succeed Spencer S. Eddy, whose promotion to Minister to Argentina which resulted from the changes incident to the recent retirement of Ambassador Tower at Berlin, John W. Garrett, of Md., second secretary of embassy at Berlin is promoted to secretary of embassy at Rome to succeed Mr. Hitt. Joseph C. Grew, of Mass., third secretary at St. Petersburg is promoted to succeed Mr. Garrett as second secretary at Berlin.

There have been two cases of bubonic plague, one of which proved fatal at Caracas and two cases, both of which were fatal at La Guayra. The information was conveyed to the State Department today in a cablegram from Jacob Sleeper, the American charge de affairs at the Venezuelan capital, under date of June 10. Mr. Sleeper adds that communication with Porto Cabello is uninterrupted and railway traffics with La Guayra has been resumed under quarantine restriction.

The closing of the Hyde-Benson-Dimond-Schneider land fraud conspiracy case was enacted today when the prosecution summed up the case. Each of the four lawyers for the defendants will speak for their respective clients and it is expected that the government will close its arguments today.

The garison at Alcazar, a town 50 miles from Tangiers, has massacred the commander of the fort and declared for the pretender to the throne of Morocco. This information comes in a cablegram to the State Department today from Mr. Gummore, the American minister at Tangiers. He states that the governor is said to have been sent to Fez a prisoner.

Secretary of the Navy Metcalf had a farewell conference with President Roosevelt previous to leaving for California at 5:45 this afternoon, where he will spend his vacation. In response to a querry, the secretary announced emphatically that he will not be a candidate for senator from California to succeed Senator Perkins

Wm. H. Barnes, 66 years old, of 509 E street northeast, and employed by the Adams Express Company, jumped from the navy yard bridge early this morning and was drowned. His son, Charles A. Barnes, was found dead in bed Easter Sunday and the father had been grieving over his death.

S. T. Pennington, 31 years old, of this city, an employe of the auditor's office of the Navy Department, was crushed to death this morning in the elevator shaft of the Munsey building.

The Anti Racing Bill.

New York, June 15.—One million dollars, it is started in sporting circles here today, has been raised by racing men to discover means by which the Agnew-Hart law may be "legally" dodged and twelve of the most noted lawyers in New York have been retained to devise a plan. Three bookmakers by agreement with the Jockey Club, it is said, are to be arrested at the track today to furnish test cases. Police, however, will not stop at the three but will arrest every man making a bet of any sort The test arrests are to be made by arrangement with Commissioner Bingham's men. Assistant District Attorney Elder of Kings county, declares that he will not agree to the test case plan. He has caused a sensation by declaring that the racing crowd have already secured a judge who will favor them and who, he says, has his decision written. Roy S. and Paul J. Rainey, the millionaire Cleveland horsemen, are to ship their string of racers to France in three weeks. This is declared to be the first the exodus which will follow the suppression of betting at the tracks.

It was stated today that, the first panic has worn off, the race track lawyers have come to the conclusion that "nod" or "memory" bets may be made without the authorities being able to arrest the bettors or bookmakers.

To Be Wed in a Balloon.

Westboro, Mass., June 15.—To win $10,000 offered him by his uncle if within a year he marries a woman "with plenty of courage," M. A. Alexander is preparing to wed Miss H. F. Bottomly, of this town, high in the air in a balloon. The ceremony will take place at the Worcester fair.

Train Wrecked.

Greensboro, N. C., June 15.—The Southern Railway train No. 139 was wrecked at Eton College last night. The locomotive turned completely over and the engineer, fireman and express messenger miraculously escaped death with a few bruises.

News of the Day.

George Siler, famous as a boxer, referee and authority on pugilism, died of heart disease Saturday.

Pittsburg bankers have decided on a Bertillon system to protect themselves against dishonest employees.

As a memorial to her grandfather, Col. John Germain, Mrs. Russell Sage will present to the village of Sag Harbor a free public library.

A report by way of Mexico says that a fund has been subscribed for a revolution in Cuba as soon as the United States troops are withdrawn.

A number of changes were made on Saturday at the Government Printing Office in Washington and all the "temporaries" were laid off.

The Earl of Derby, former Lord of the Admiralty, Secretary of War and Governor-General of Canada, died in London yesterday aged 67 years.

William K. Vanderbilt's colt Northeast yesterday won the Grand Prix de Paris, the chief racing contest on the French turf, the value of which this year is nearly $80,000.

Mr. Henry Phipps, the steel magnate and philanthropist of Pittsburg, has given over $750,000 to the Johns Hopkins Hospital to establish a department for the study and treatment of insanity.

August Belmont could not win the Derby in England with Norman III, but he won the Brooklyn Derby at Gravesend Saturday with his three-year-old Fair Play, the son of Hastings-Fairy Gold, the colt which ran second to Celt in the Brooklyn Handicap on the opening day of the meeting.

William J. Bryan, of Lincoln, retired from York, Neb., on Saturday. At his office it was announced that 697 delegates to the democratic convention at Denver were pledged to vote for Bryan as the nominee for president, this being twenty-five more than the necessary two-thirds majority.

Word was received at the police station at Danbury, this afternoon that police had captured Edward Schirrman, the murderer of Ida Potter, this morning, and now have him in Poughkeepsie awaiting extradition proceedings. He was captured on Shenandoah Mountain, just east of Poughkeepsie.

Some two hundred bishops of the Anglican denomination, including about forty American bishops, have arrived in London to take part in the Pan-Anglican Congress. This evening the prelates will be entertained at dinner by the Pilgrims, and many other entertainments have been arranged in their honor.

FAILED TO DIE.

Mrs. Anna Kiselcia, who was scheduled to die in Paterson, N. J., yesterday by reason of a vision she had three weeks ago, is still healthy and sound. There is no immediate danger of her death, as she is physicially in the best of health.

When she found yesterday morning that she was not dying at the hour appointed, 6 o'clock, she refused to take nourishment. During the day, however, the physicians and nurses prevailed upon the woman to take a little food, and there is every likelihood that she will not attempt to fight death by the starvation route.

It is generally believed that Mrs. Kiselcia's so-called vision of her death is nothing more than dementia induced by the death of her husband several months ago, as she became very delirious afterward.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The republican hosts are gathering in Chicago, but the general feeling is that Roosevelt is in command, although at a distance, and the enthusiasm of former conventions is largely lacking so far, because there is no excitement of uncertainty.

The impression is that the president wants Dolliver for the second place, but local conditions in Iowa are urged against it by the Iowans themselves.

Many letters have been sent from Chicago to Secretary Taft urging the appointment of Frank B. Hitchcock as chairman of the national committee.

FLOUR CONDEMNED.

Justice Barnard, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, on Thursday, on motion of Stuart McNamara, assistant district attorney, ordered condemned two car loads of flour, which were recently placed "under arrest" at the terminal freight yards in Washington. One of the cars contained 1,200 sacks of flour, bearing the label, "Ceresta High-grade Patent Flour—The Sanitary Grocery Company, of Washington, D. C." The other car contains 240 sacks, labeled "Paragon Minnesota Cream Roller Process—Sole Agent, F. G. Swain, Washington, D. C." No defense was offered to prevent the confiscation of the products, although the owners of the flour mill will be allowed to ship the contents of the cars back to the point of origin, this privilege holding good until June 20, when a surety bond of $1,500 will be required of the defendants to insure a compliance with the court's decree.

On Saturday a coroner's jury practically exonerated W. C. Rose, aged seventy-six, the Confederate Veteran who last night, at the threshold of his home in south Norfolk, shot and killed Harry Harmon, aged twenty-two, as Harmon was pursuing Miss Dora Hewitt, who had taken refuge there.

The annual convention of the State Association of Elks will meet in Lynchburg tomorrow for a three-day session. The address of welcome on behalf of the city will be made by Mr. Don P. Halsey, and on behalf of the Elks' Lodge by Fred Harper, to which Myer Saals, of Petersburg, president of the association, will respond.

Gus E Delarue, for 32 years a well-known merchant of Richmond, died at his home in that city yesterday. He was 69 years of age. Delarue retired from business on May 1, closing out a cafe and restaurant which had been a landmark in the city ever since shortly after the civil war. He was a native of Germany. Delarue is survived by two sons.

A "twilight excursion," returning from West Point to Richmond last night over the Southern Railway, was wrecked in the yards in Richmond, the engine plunging head on into half a dozen box cars which were left standing on the tracks. The engine was almost completly demolished. The train was crowded with several hundred men, women, and children, who had spent the day at the York river resort. A panic ensued among the women when the crash came. The passengers stampeded for the exits, jostling one another and crowding the weaker down. Many who had not been injured by the impact of the locomotive were hurt in the stampede. Several people were more or less injured and bruised by the force of the collision.

DEATH OF BLIND TOM.

"Blind Tom," the famous colored musician, died Saturday in Hoboken, N. J., where he had been living for years in retirement and subsisting on charity. Thomas Wiggins is the name given in his burial certificate, but the surname was one which the pianist adopted. He was born a slave near Columbus Ga., about 1850.

In early childhood Tom, who was born entirely blind and more than half idiotic, showed himself remarkably imitative, frequently stealing into the house of his master to reproduce on the pianoforte pieces he had heard played by others.

When he was between 8 and 9 years old he became so proficient on the instrument that he was taken to New York and exhibited as a phenomenon and later was widely heard in the United States and Europe.

Tom was an idot from birth, and at three years of age was sold to J. N. Bethune, of Fanquier county, Va. From his earliest years Tom showed a wonderful appreciation of music. On the Bethune plantation he first heard the notes of a piano. He was often found with his ear pressed to the wall of the house when the piano was being played, and he sang or whistled airs after hearing them once.

At four years of age Tom astonished the Bethune family by his wonderful execution on the piano. When the boy was eight years of age his master, J. N. Bethune, toured the country with him and later went to Europe, where the musician played before the crowned heads of the continent. Over $200,000, it is said, was realized from the first tour. When J. N. Bethune ceased to exhibit Blind Tom his son, John G. Bethune, assumed the management of the colored wonder and toured him throughout the country from July 10, 1870, when his father succeeded in having him appointed curator of the blind idiot's person by the courts of Virginia, until 1883, when the son died.

[COMMUNICATED.]

THE DANCER PAYS THE FIDDLER.

The hatchet is never buried in a political contest. It was mentioned in Tuesday's Gazette that Messrs. Stringfellow and Green engaged in combat on the floor of the State convention, in Roanoke, over issues and factional disputes in Culpeper. When it is known that Mr. Green is a large men in stature and that Mr. Stringfellow is a son of one of the noblest and gamest men Virginia ever produced—Rev. Frank Stringfellow—it is to be wondered why the affair was so soon quieted. It will also be remembered that the democratic district committee before the last primary was an anti-organization body. No one knew this better than those who fought for the supremacy of the machine. No one was quicker to act than the machine. The result was that Messrs. Gaines, of Warrenton, and Lion, of Prince William, were relegated to the tall timber and two gentlemen "better adapted" to the position and who speak the language of the tribe, were chosen. H.

ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL.

Alexandria, June 15.

Board of Lady Managers of Alexandria Hospital:

I herewith submit my report for my term of service beginning March 1, 1908, and ending May 31, 1908:

Patients readmitted, 21; admitted, 70; total, 91. Results: Cured, 71; improved, 4; died, 3; left under treatment, 13; total, 91. While the hospital is at the present time rendering most excellent service to the city and surrounding community, it is greatly handicapped by its situation and want of space for more beds; there are times, especially during epidemics of typhoid, etc., when it is impossible to accomodate all who make application, and as a result the purposes for which this hospital was instituted are not carried out to the fullest extent. I submit this matter for your consideration.

Respectfully,

MARTIN D. DELANEY, M. D.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Approaching Convention.

Chicago, June 15.—The situation rising from the dissatisfaction of the colored element is becoming more serious. The colored vote has never been so rebellious as at the present time. Fervent "amens" are being sounded today by hundreds of Chicago negroes to the sentiments preached on Sunday at the Bethel African M. E. Church, when negro political orators demanded bloodshed as a revenge in event of the nomination of Taft through the activity of the race delegations.

"What we must have is a ku klux klan," declared H. C. Crase, a rabid anti-Taft negro, "and every black man in the nation who is loyal to his race must be a member. Traitors and race-betrayers must be purish with death. The fate of the negro race for the next hundred generations is at stake."

The wrath of the negroes was increased when the report was circulated that orders had passed down the line to the national committee to remove the only negro member, Judson W. Lyons, the representative from Georgia.

Some of the more rabid negroes say that the white friends of the negro race are dead, and they must fight for themselves now.

Rev. J. M. Waldon, of Washington, president of the National Negro Political League, urged negro women all over the land to pray for the defeat of Roosevelt and Taft. "We'll pray and we'll rush the steam roller engineers into hell," he said.

Negro delegates unseated by the committee on credentials are today seriously agitating a bolt and the formation of a new party with J. B. Foraker as its candidate for the presidency.

This morning more than ever it looks as though Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, would be drafted for the second place on the republican ticket. There is little heard about it in the public corridors, but behind the scenes effective work is being done.

New York delegation at a caucus today adopted without dissent a resolution to instruct Gen. Stewart L. Woodford to present the name of Governor Hughes to the national convention for the presidential nomination and to vote unanimously for Hughes on the first ballot. The Cortelyou supporters are not strong enough to force their man to the front, but have been holding out and have kept the delegation split.

Opponents of the anti-injunction proposition asserted at noon today that they had persuaded the leaders of the party to eliminate that plank from the platform, even at the risk of bitterely antagonizing the labor forces.

Chicago, June 15.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor today completed its draft of planks desired by the labor leaders in the republican platform. It will be presented to the committee on resolutions as soon as the members shall have been selected to-morrow.

San Francisco, June 15.—Aroused by the report that the republican platform will dodge all questions as to the immigration of Chinese and Japanese the Asiatic exclusion league of San Francisco today wired Chicago demanding the insertion of a plank on that issue. It is declared by members of the league that if the republicans fail to cater thus to the wishes of the coast the omission will cost Taft and his running mate thousands of votes west of rockies.

The Pretender's Followers Committing Outrages.

Tangier, June 15.—Crazed with joy over the addition to their ranks of 4,000 of the soldiers of Sultan Abdul Azis, the followers of Mulai Hafid, the pretender, are committing outrages that it is feared will either call for intervention by France or plunge Morocco into a bloody war. Following the revolt of the sultan's soldiers, a French commander and three other French officers were made prisoners. This was but one of a number of outrages by the fantical Moors. Abdul Azis's position today is more serious than it has been at any time since his brother took the field against him. The fresh revolt of his troops, it is feared, will be followed by other desertions. With the weakening of the sultan's forces, Mulai Hafid will force the issue and a number of engagements against the strongholds now held by the sultan's forces are daily expected.

Kaiser to Visit Sultan.

Constantinople, June 15.—Apprehensive over the movements of England, France and Russia and the prospect of a triple alliance among them, Emperor William of Germany is seeking a closer union with some of the smaller European powers. To this end it was officially announced here today that the kaiser will shortly pay a visit to the sultan in Constantinople. The German ambassador to Turkey has gone to Berlin to arrange the details of the trip. The kaiser is said to desire a closer entente with Turkey and through Turkey to gain the friendship of Sweden. Arrangements are being made to give Emperor William a great reception.

Narrow Escape.

Berlin, June 15.—The presence of mind of Emperor William today saved the lives of a skiff load of people on the Spree. The imperial yacht Alexandra, with the emperor aboard, was threading its way along the densely crowded river when a skiff, carrying several persons, attempted to cross her bow. The kaiser was the first to see the danger which threatened the skiff, and he quickly telephoned the engine room to have the yacht stopped. The Alexandra slowed up just in time to keep from running down the skiff. There were many people on the river banks and in nearby boats who witnessed the affair and they cheered the kaiser uproariously.

Killed by Black Hand Men.

New York, June 15.—Two Black Hand men shot and stabbed Jos. Cardinello, of Brooklyn, to death today in Coffey park. The assassins fled just as a policeman appeared on the scene of the crime. The officer heard three revolver shots and reached Cardinello before he died. The victim was shot three times in the back, stabbed through the eyes and in the left breast. He died before medical aid could reach him. In Cardinello's pocket a "Black Hand" letter warned him of approaching vengeance by the society. The dead man's watch and $33 in cash were untouched by his murderers.

The Pan-Anglican Congress.

London, June 15.—The great Pan-Anglican Congress, convened on the call of the Archbishop of Canterbury, opened in Westminster Abbey today with 250 bishops and archbishops and 10,000 priests and laymen in attendance. Delegates from nearly every country in the world are represented. Two full-blooded African bishops are among the delegates. The Pan-Anglican Congress will be in session ten days, after which the conference of bishops convenes in Lambeth Palace. This conference meets every ten years.

Bodies Set Adrift.

Minising, Mich., June 15.—Brutally murdered, then robbed and their mutilated bodies set afloat in open boat on lake Superior is believed to have been the fate of George Genesy keeper of the North Light Grand island and his assistant whose name is not known. The body of Genery's assistant, with the head disfigured beyond recognition, was found in one of the lighthouse sail boats, which was picked up between Minising and Grand Marais. The lake and beach are today being searched for Genery's body.

Senator Bailey's Condition.

New York, June 15.—A bulletin posted at the Waldorf-Astoria early today announced that Senator Joseph W. Bailey passed a comfortable night and this morning was resting easy. Physicians attending the Texas senator have announced that Mr. Bailey has been severely ill with bronchitis with a moderate but continuous fever, but that the reports of serious throat affection are not true.

Searching for a Murderer.

Millville, N. J., June 15.—Hundreds of farmers who threaten lynching are searching the woods near Diving creek, sixteen miles south of this city, today for Frank Bitzger, a berry picker, who shot and killed his employer, Salvadore Jordan. Bitzger and his employer quarrelled over a matter of wages and in the squabble the berry picker drew a pistol and fired. Jordan fell and Bitzger fled.

Cables Across New Bridge.

New York, June 14.—With ceremonies of an elaborated nature the first cables were stretched across the new Manhattan bridge between New York and Brooklyn today. Officials of both Brooklyn and Queens boroughs delivered addresses and river traffic was suspended. Tugs, steamers and small craft saluted the completion of the cable laying by volleys of whistles and dipping of colors.

Sheath Gown Condemned.

Boston, June 15.—The sheath gown was "designed in Satan's mines and woven in the looms of hell", says the Rev. Wm. Bustard, pastor of Dudley Street Baptist church. In his sermon on "That Wife of Your's" last night he declared that no decent woman would wear such a gown and unhappy the man that marries the woman who would condescend to such act.

Cyclone.

Rochester, N. Y., June 15.—A small cyclone struck the northwestern section of the state yesterday afternoon, uprooting trees, carrying down telephone and telegraph wires and causing property loss estimated at $15,000. A three-story factory in course of construction was blown down and glass and timbers from the shattered building were hurled through the side of a building nearby.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 15.—The features in the first hour was heaviness in all the Erie. The general list after opening steady was heavy under the lead of Union Pacific, which fell 1½. Great Northern preferred, Southern Pacific, St. Paul and Reading moved in about the same way. Buying orders caused a general improvement, Union Pacific recovering nearly all its loss and some other stocks showed fractional gains.

OFFICIAL.

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the leasing with the privilege of purchasing by the City Council of Alexandria of certain land situate in the city of Alexandria, upon certain terms, conditions and provisions, to the person or corporation hereafter to be ascertained in the manner prescribed by law.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia:

Section 1. That there shall be leased, with the privilege of purchasing, in the manner prescribed by the constitution and laws of the State of Virginia, the following described property situate in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, and bounded and described as follows, viz: Beginning at a point on the east building line of Lee street 174 feet north of the north building line of Montgomery street and running thence east parallel with Montgomery street into the Potomac river; thence returning to the point of beginning and running along the east side of Lee street to the south building line of First street; thence along the south building line of First street into the Potomac river, with the right to remove the bank of earth in First street opposite said described property, for the purpose of filling on said property, with the right to erect a wharf and with the right of way over First, Lee, Montgomery and Fairfax streets, together with the right to erect, maintain and use a switch from the railroad over or along Lee street into said property, for the term of ten years, with the privilege of purchase, upon the terms, conditions and provisions, which are embodied in the following draft of an ordinance:

An ordinance to lease, with the privilege of purchase to ——————, his associates and assigns, certain land situate in the city of Alexandria, upon certain terms, conditions and provisions.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia:

Section 1. That a lease for the period of ten years at an annual rent of —— dollars, with the right and privilege to purchase at any time during said period, at and for the sum of ——————dollars, is hereby authorized to ——————, his associates and assigns, of the following described property, to-wit: Beginning at a point on the east building line of Lee street ——— feet north of the north building line of Montgomery street and running thence east parallel with Montgomery street into the Potomac river; thence returning to the point of beginning and running along the east side of Lee street to the south building line of First street; thence along the south building line of First street into the Potomac river, with the right to remove the bank of earth in First street opposite said described property for the purpose of filling on said property, with the right to erect a wharf and with the right of way over First, Lee, Montgomery and Fairfax streets, together with the right to erect, maintain and use a switch from the railroad over and along Lee street into said property. The lease to contain a provision that the same is to be null, void and of no effect unless the said ——————, his associates and assigns, shall within ninety days begin construction and within one year from execution thereof expend not less than ——————dollars in the erection of a factory.

The lease also to contain a provision that if the said ——————, his associates or his or their assigns, shall cease to do business entirely and shall declare their intention of closing the business and shall close the business, then and in that event the said real estate, rights and privileges and improvements thereon shall revert or return to the said City Council of Alexandria.

Section 2. That upon the termination of said lease, if the said ——————, his associates and assigns, shall not have exercised the right to purchase said real estate upon the terms hereinbefore stated, then and in that event the said property, rights and privileges and improvements shall be forfeited to the City Council of Alexandria.

Section 3. The attorney for the city of Alexandria is hereby empowered and instructed to prepare a written lease and contract from the City Council of Alexandria to the said ——————, his associates, or whoever he or they may designate as his or their assigns, embodying the terms, conditions and provisions hereinbefore set forth and stated, and the Mayor of the city of Alexandria is hereby empowered and authorized to execute said lease and contract for and on behalf of the City Council of Alexandria, signing its corporate name and attaching its corporate seal thereto.

Section 4. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

Section 2. That upon the approval of this ordinance by the Mayor of the city of Alexandria it shall be the duty of the clerk of the Common Council to cause to be advertised once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, a draft of the ordinance contained in the foregoing section, and in addition he shall in such advertisement invite bids for the lease and contract proposed to be granted in the above proposed ordinance. The cost of this advertisement to be reimbursed to the City Council of Alexandria by the corporation or person to whom the grant of such lease and contract is finally made. The City Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Each bidder will be required to file with his bid a certified check for one hundred dollars, payable to the order of the City Council of Alexandria, which certified check or checks will be returned to such bidder or bidders whose bid or bids are rejected, and in case of the bidder whose bid is accepted and to whom the above lease and contract is granted, said check will be returned upon the payment to the City Council of Alexandria of the cost of this advertisement. The bids are to be delivered to the presiding officer of the Common Council of the city of Alexandria, in open session, at the date and hour of the next regular session of said body held next after such advertisement shall be completed, and shall be then and there presented by the presiding officer to the City Council of Alexandria to be dealt with and acted upon in the mode prescribed by law.

Section 3. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

Passed Board of Aldermen May 12, 1908.
J. R. N. CURTIN, President.
Passed Common Council May 12, 1908.
HERBERT SNOWDEN, President.
Approved May 15, 1908.
FRED J. PAFF, Mayor.
Teste: N. S. GREENAWAY, Clerk pro tem.

Bids are invited for the franchise, rights, privileges, lease and contract proposed to be granted by the above ordinance, which bids are to be in writing and are to be delivered to the presiding officer of the Common Council of the city of Alexandria, in open session, at the date and hour of the next regular session of said body held next after this advertisement shall have been published once a week for four successive weeks. Each bidder will be required to file with his bid a certified check for one hundred dollars, payable to the order of the City Council of Alexandria, which certified check or checks will be returned to each bidder whose bid or bids are rejected, and in case of the bidder whose bid is accepted, said check will be returned upon the payment to the City Council of Alexandria of the cost of this advertisement. The City Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

CATON FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

He made the formal announcement to a few of his friends at the recent Roanoke convention, and gave them to understand that he is in the race to a finish and that he will make a campaign for the office. It will be recalled that Colonel Caton declared his intention to stand for the nomination a few years ago, and because of his health at the time he was compelled to retire before the campaign was really on. He spent several months out of the State in an effort to regain his health, following a very heavy strain in the general assembly, when the laws had to be adjusted to conform to the new constitution.

Colonel Caton has been in the lower branch of the general assembly for many years, serving on the most important committees and being conspicuous for his ability and fairness. He has several times been urged to stand for Congress in his district, but declined. He is a democrat of the old school, a native of Virginia and a man of splendid qualifications. His people return him to the general assembly whenever he says he will serve. He is a lawyer of recognized eminence and has made his home in Alexandria for about half a century.—[Richmond News Leader, 13th.

RIVER NOTES.

Workmen are employed in removing the apron that connected the old car float with the shore tracks at Shepherds landing of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad opposite this city. Probably the landing will never again be used as a terminus for a car ferry from Alexandria.

The hull of an old barge, which was sunk just off the outlet of the old Alexandria canal, during a freshet in 1889, is being removed under the direction of Lieut. Dent, the engineer officer temporarily in charge of improvements on the Potomac river. The chief of engineers has allotted the sum of $1,000 to complete the work. The hulk formed a mud bank which has caused considerable difficulty to navigators.

There was a high tide in the river this morning the water overflowing into the Strand at the foot of King street and, entering the sewers, it made its way to the intersection of Cameron and Union streets.

It is said that the steamer General R. E. Lee is to be brought here from Norfolk and placed on the route of the steamer Trenton.

HELD UP AND ROBBED.

Considerable excitement was caused on King street, between Payne and West, about ten o'clock last Saturday night by a bold robbery which took place in a second-hand store conducted by Peter J. Pulman. Two white men entered the store and after attacking the proprietor they seized a pistol and a bicycle bell and ran off. Mr. Pulman made an outcry and pursued the theives, but they succeeded in getting away.

Yesterday morning Chief Goods, and officers Henderson and Nicholson arrested Harry Pattie, twenty-nine years of age, of Warrenton, and John Pickard, who says he lives in New York city, and who says he is sixteen years old, on suspicion of having committed the robbery. The men were later identified by Mr. Pulman as his assailants. The prisoners were captured near the Dyke, where a number of nomads had gathered.

The case was called in the Police Court this morning, but Mr. Pulman, on account of his injuries, was unable to be present. The case was postponed until next Friday morning.

FINED TEN DOLLARS EACH.

Several young men from Washington made themselves obnoxious to passengers on an electric train in this city last night. They were very disorderly, expectorated upon the floor, placed their feet out of windows and virtually took possession of the train. Officer Roberts appeared on the scene and took Edward Bromley and John Barnes in custody, but three of their companions, who had added to their offenses that of indecent conduct, managed to escape. Bromley and Barnes were brought before the Police Court this morning and fined $10 each.

ALEXANDRIAN ASSAULTED.

E. R. Boyer, formerly of Alexandria, who is in Richmond, was attacked by a negro workman there a few days ago and badly hurt. Mr. Boyer had charge of a gang of laborers on the streets, and he spoke to one of the men, John Kent, about his work. The negro became enraged and raised a pick and struck at Mr. Boyer, who threw his arms over his head to ward off the blow. The pick struck the scalp and made a cut and the arms of Mr. Boyer were badly bruised. Kent made his escape. It was a murderous assault, and Kent will most likely go to the penitentiary if captured.

CASE POSTPONED.

Eugene Lucas, an electrician living at 239 Peyton street, was arrested by Officers Nicholson and Henderson yesterday on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Lucas, who formerly lived in Washington, had been working for Kirby & Webster, electricians, in this city, and, it is alleged, collected money for which he failed to account. In the absence of material witnesses, the case was postponed in the Police Court this morning until Friday next.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Children's Day was observed at the Methodist Protestant Church last evening with appropriate services. The pulpit was tastily decorated with palms and cut flowers and gave tone in keeping with the occasion and season. Numerous recitations, interspersed with carols sung by the entire school, formed the programme. All who participated made an excellent impression on the audience. The daisy song, with little Miss Mabel Hillesry as soloist, and a chorus of nine voices was the feature of the primary work. "The Matchless Prophecy," a recitation by Miss Ola Lyles, was strikingly rendered, at the conclusion of which five young ladies came in with a chorus representing an answer to the appeal for foreign missions made in the recitation. Some facts on the foreign field were read by the secretary of the Sunday school, Mr. Warner Foltz. The leading number on the programme was entitled "In His Fold." The five graces—prudence, gentleness, innocence, affection and faith—were portrayed by Misses Grace Tyler, Minnie Simpson, Lelia Henderson, May Roberts and Addie Lindsay in bible quotations, recitations and song, in the midst of which the angel, represented by Miss Sadie Sullivan, entered and gave a charge to the graces, and to the school explained the mission of Christ to the world, unfolding the standard of the church, a white banner with a gold cross, and with this standard waving the angel and graces marched from the stage. This number was most impressively rendered and appreciated by the congregation which filled the church and vestible. The missionary offering was about the usual yearly collection. The singing by the school was very much enjoyed by all present.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Stephen O'Bryan and James Torbin, charged with vagrancy, were dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

Philip Toler, colored, charged with stealing a dog from Thomas Nesbit, had his case continued until tomorrow.

George Grunsinger, white, and Alfred Johnson and William Warren, colored, charged with trespassing upon Southern Railway cars, were fined $5 each.

A young man charged with fighting, was fined $5. Another young man charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

Charles and Frank Pearson, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, were fined $5 each.

John Britts, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5.

ON THE MOVE.

One campaign is hardly over in this city before candidates galore are bobbing up for an office to be filled next year, and are circulating among their friends early in the game in order to secure their promises of support. In the contest for the honor of representing the city and county in the legislature there are already three candidates, each young and popular—Messrs. J. Fred Birrell, R. W. Arnold and Robinson Moncure—each of whom stands well with the democratic organization and were warm supporters of Hon. C. C. Carlin in the last election. This naturally makes it a free fight with the advantage at present in favor of neither aspirant, which will insure an active campaign.

THE NEW MILITARY COMPANY.

The new Alexandria Light Infantry has rented McBurney's Hall to use for drills until the ownership of Armory Hall has been legally settled, and will hold the first drills on Tuesdays and Thursdays evenings of this week at 8 o'clock. The list of those who have agreed to join the new military company is still growing, and a good proportion were physically examined and enlisted last week at Dr. Wm. M. Smith's office. The examinations will be continued this week, tonight from 7 to 8 o'clock at Dr. Smith's office, and tomorrow and Thursday evenings at 7:30 o'clock in McBurney's Hall.

SHOT IN THE KNEE.

A youth named Charles Macrae, fourteen years of age, who lived about ninety miles down the river on the Virginia side, was accidentally shot yesterday morning. The bullet was from a .32 caliber revolver, and penetrated the knee. Macrae, was taken to the Alexandria Hospital, where his injuries were dressed by Dr. T. M. Jones. The accident happened aboard the sailing vessel E. S. Croswell, a lumber schooner, now at a dock between King and Cameron streets.

SENT TO JAIL.

Dora White, colored, was fined $500 and sentenced to jail for thirty days in the United States district court in Richmond on Saturday for sending obscene matter through the mails. She was brought to Alexandria by Deputy-Marshal Murphy on Saturday. She will be relieved of the fine after her thirty days' imprisonment have been served.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES.

Children's Day services were conducted at 8 o'clock last night in the Methodist Protestant Church, Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, and the First Baptist Church. The auditoriums of the churches were prettily and tastefully decorated and the exercises which were interesting were well attended.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Washington school, the white male division of the public schools, was closed today for the summer recess. Appropriate exercises took place at Washington school building. The clerk distributed the certificates and cards of honor. In the principal's divisions of the George Washington High School—the only high school as yet instituted by the City School Board—cards of honor were granted to the following pupils: 8th grade—Gilbert J. Cox, Richard H. Fawcett, J. Randolph Simms and Irving A. Tennesson; 9th grade—Chas. A. Callahan, Lawrence W. Corbett, Reginald F. Cox, Julian O'K. Downey, B. Marion Hopkins, Leonard M. S. Knight and W. Leicester Martin; 10th grade—Certificates for having satisfactorily completed the course of study prescribed were awarded to Charles William Wright, Charles Fletcher Dyson, Laurence Douglas Smith and David Bishop Arnold. The superintendent's medal was awarded to Chas. W. Wright.

The certificates of graduation are upon genuine parchment and the beautiful work was executed by Mr. P. F. Downey, an ex-pupil of the school.

The following is a list of the names of pupils who received certificates of distinction in the seventh grade, taught by Capt. W. H. Sweeney: Wm. A. Burnett, Depew Chauncey, Charles Corbett, Courtland Davis, Harold Davis, Bertram Dienelt, Chapin Evans, Everett Hellmuth, Frank Hill, Jno. DeW. Johnson, Irvin Lindsey, Harry Leake, Gilbert Minor, Joseph Owens, William O'Neal, Frank Peverill, James Pulman, Earl Wells and Wm. Woolls.

The following received certificates of distinction in the sixth grade, taught by Mr. Fitzgerald Jones: Edward Clark, Harry Crilly, Raymond Devers, Frank Fannon, Marshall Gaines, John Igoe, Harry Mankin, Walter Nalls, Louis Patterson, George Pettit, Wm. Phillips, Bryan Pitts, Herman Pohl, Leslie Roberts, Norman Roberts, William Topping, John Underwood, Paul Miller and Thomas Jones.

PERSONAL.

Capt. K. Kemper is quite sick at his home on Queen street.

Miss Cora Jones, who has been attending Mount De Sales College, near Baltimore, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. C. H. Smithers and brother, Mr. George Baggett, of this city, are visiting Mrs. W. A. Lankford in Charlottesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sands, of Richmond, are the guests of Mrs. Sands' brother, Judge J. K. M. Norton.

Among those who received diplomas of graduation in the fourth form at Woodberry Forest School last week was Mr. C. K. Carlin, son of Hon. C. C. Carlin, of this city.

Mr. C. E. Brawner, wife and child, of this city, are visiting near Broad Run.

Maj. Thomas P. Wallace, mayor of Fredericksburg, spent yesterday with friends in this city.

Judge Barley is at Manassas where today he is presiding in the Circuit Court of Prince William county in the case of Sullivan vs. Lansburgh.

Prof. Legh W. Reid, of Haverford College, Pa., is in the city on a visit to his father, Col. L. W. Reid, and on the 20th will sail for Europe.

DEATHS.

Margaret J. Knoxville, of Arlington, Va., died in Washington from heart disease Saturday afternoon. The deceased was 14 years of age. She was a daughter of the late Charles and Martha Knoxville of this city and a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Margaret Alexander. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, corner of Mt. Vernon Avenue and Columbia turnpike, Alexandria county. The deceased was a niece of Mr. John A. Alexander, of this city.

Mary Elizabeth, the infant daughter of W. M. and Bessie Soper, died at her parents' home, No. 1933 Duke street, last night. The remains will be forwarded to Herndon, Fairfax county, for interment.

Polly Coleman, an aged colored woman, died at her home on Gibbon street yesterday.

THE CHURCHES.

The churches yesterday were fairly well attended. The morning services at the M. E. Church South were conducted by Rev. W. V. Tudor, of the Virginia Conference. At St. Paul's Church in the morning services were conducted by Rev. Braxton Bryan, of Petersburg. Resident clergy occupied the pulpits at the other churches. Announcement was made at St. Mary's Catholic Church that during the summer months the last mass would be celebrated at 10 o'clock, instead of 10:30 o'clock and the vespers will be at 5 o'clock instead of 4 o'clock, and at Christ Church it was stated that during the remainder of the summer the services will be but of one hours duration.

FIGHT.

Some excitement was caused in the southeastern section of the city last Saturday evening by a fight between two young men, during which one of the belligerents ran into the house and emerged with a pistol—said, however, to have been empty. He was quickly disarmed by bystanders. Both young men were arrested and brought before the Police Court this morning. The youngster who came out second-best was dismissed, he having been badly beaten, and the court deeming his punishment sufficient. His antagonist, who struck the first blow, was fined $5.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

The docket was called and cases set. No business of interest was transacted today. Tomorrow the case of F. L. Ball vs. the Southern Railway Co., a suit for damages resulting from the death of a colored child, will be heard.

A Boomerang.

"I know a German editor," said a newspaper man, "who found himself one night when the paper was about to go to press without any editorials. What was he to do? It was too late to write any himself, too late to have any written. Like a flash an inspiration came to him, and, dipping his pen, he wrote hurriedly:

"'After carefully reading the editorials written for the morning's issue by four of the ablest and most brilliant members of our staff we have come to the conclusion that they might be misinterpreted by the authorities and regarded as an attack on the government. We ourselves consider them perfectly innocent, but as we have no desire to see our newspaper confiscated we have very unwillingly, though, as we think, prudently, resolved to withhold the articles in question. This must serve as an apology to our readers for a blank editorial page.'

"Imagine this editor's shock when his secretary telephoned him the next morning that the paper had been confiscated.

"'But—but on what ground?' the editor gasped.

Pet Poisoning a Trade.

"Every town has its pet poisoner if you know where to find him," said a druggist. "These men keep my stock of alkaloids on the move. There is a demand for the pet poisoner. Suppose your favorite dog breaks his back. What a relief, then, to summon the pet poisoner and have the animal slain without pain. Cats and birds, dogs and even fish come within the province of the pet poisoner. He charges usually a dollar a case, but if you are rich he won't object to charging you $5 or $10. Some folks in their wills leave directions that their pet dogs or cats be poisoned, fearing that the animals would find life too harsh and sad after their loving owners' decease. Some folks, too, if they are going away for a long time—making a tour of the world, say—have their pets poisoned rather than trust them to servants possibly careless. Mistaken kindness I call such doings, and that, I bet, is what the pets call it too."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"Either" and "Neither."

There are two or three things about these two words that one should remember. In the first place, they should never be used in connection with more than two things—as: "It was either Tuesday or Wednesday," not "either Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday;" "it was neither Tuesday nor Wednesday," not "neither Tuesday, Wednesday nor Thursday." Then, either should not be used in the sense of each, as "they walked on, one on either side of the road." It should be one on "each" side of the road. The third caution is about the pronunciation. Some persons insist that they should be pronounced "i-ther" and "ni-ther," with the "i" long. But this is more an affectation perhaps than anything else. The best authorities agree that the right pronunciation is "e-ther" and "ne-ther."—New York World.

"Pinched."

The humor of school and college examinations is perennial. One specimen was contributed by one of the high schools where a girl in the department of history was required to write a brief sketch of Queen Elizabeth. Her paper when turned in was found to contain the following sentence: "Elizabeth was so dishonest that she stole her soldiers' food." The teacher who conducted these examinations was puzzled to know just whence this particular information had percolated into the girl's mind. So, calling her up, she asked the question.

Why," was the ready answer, "that's just what it says in the history."

The book was sent for and the passage examined. It was found to read, "Elizabeth was so parsimonious that she pinched her soldiers' ration."—Bookman.

A Curious Rescue.

Two officers hunting wolves on the Dry mountain, in central Servia, lost their way in a fog. After wandering for fourteen hours one of them lay down in the snow and speedily became unconscious. His comrade bound him with cords, placed him in a sitting position and then rolled him down the mountain. He glided down the slope at terrific speed and reached the bottom safely, being found an hour later in an exhausted condition by a peasant.

Man and Plants.

M. Camille Saint-Saens says: "I do not pretend to adduce irrefragable evidence in support of my theory that man began his earthly career as a plant. I do maintain, however, that an impartial examination of my theory must allow that my assumption and hypotheses are sufficiently plausible to be considered justifiable."

Keeps Him High Strung.

"The manager always keeps back a portion of the villain's salary."

"Why does he do that—afraid he'd skip?"

"No, but he always acts his part better when he's mad."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Losers.

"To what do you attribute your success in acquiring money?"

"Partly to the success of other men in letting go of it," replied the great financier.—Philadelphia Ledger.

M. O. Plan Has Failed.

Under this heading the Escanaba (Mich.) Mirror gives the following item:

"The city of Algoma, Wis., finds that the municipal light and water plant is running behind and is appealing to its citizens to come to the aid of the institution. For the year 1907 the city paid for water and light the sum of $3,658, while private persons and corporations paid $4,763 approximately. The cost of running the plant, labor, fuel, minor repairs and incidentals, is about $20 per day, or $7,300 a year. Thus it is shown that there is but $1,121 to pay the interest on the bonded indebtedness of $30,000 at 5 per cent, which is $1,500, which would leave a deficit of $387.37, saying nothing about the money that was expended on the intake pipe last year. This pipe has to be taken up and relaid, and conservative persons estimate the cost in the neighborhood of $3,000. An appeal is made to citizens not to protest at the high cost of water and light."

The actual loss is probably very much higher, as the above estimate does not include interest on $10,000 of the investment not covered by bonds. Nor does it include depreciation, lost taxes and other items usually omitted from such reports.

An Easy Mark.

In his heart of hearts the average American believes in his country and its institutions and has faith that it will successfully work out its great political, industrial and social problems in ways that are in harmony with individual liberty and a democratic form of government. But that does not prevent an occasional hankering after the fleshpots of the Egypt of paternal government, whether it is frankly monarchical or nominally republican. We are prone to forget that such a government is a very close corporation and one that is apt to be arbitrary in its methods and, since it controls the courts, less amenable to public sentiment than were the private corporations it supplanted. That forgetfulness makes us an easy mark for conscienceless writers who find it profitable to attack our institutions and industries by "writing up" the advantages of public ownership in other lands while preserving a discreet silence as to its disadvantages.

Unwelcome Truths.

A request for the last annual report of the municipal electric light plant in a Michigan town of less than 2,000 inhabitants elicited from the manager the laconic reply, "About $3,000 in the hole last year." The name of this unhappy town is suppressed out of consideration for the unusually truthful manager, for within a few weeks the chief engineer of a similar plant owned by an Illinois city was removed for giving the facts about it to a reporter. Only the other day, too, the water commissioners of a New York city discharged the employee who had called the attention of the mayor to the fact that the city was being "done" on all pipe laying contracts, the same men who a short time before had tried to secure the discharge of a clerk who saved the city $19,000 by showing up a deal in the purchase of a pump.

Rather Remarkable.

"What was there so remarkable about Hercules cleaning the Augean stables?" asked the professor.

"The fact," answered the student, after some thought, "that so large a government contract could be fulfilled without somebody's being charged with graft."—Washington Star.

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from long experience in the use of it. In fact, when in El Paso, Texas, the writer's life was saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Narcoossee, Fla., and have introduced the remedy here. It has proven very successful and is constantly growing in favor.—ENNIS BROS.
